

Kevin J. Callanan, CFRE LTC, (USA, Ret.)

Kevin grew up in Hampton VA, attended Virginia Military Institute, and graduated from Christopher Newport University (CNU) with a degree in Economics. He holds a Non-Profit Management Certificate from Duke University and a Master's Degree in Philanthropy & Development from LaGrange College.

He served our nation for 28 years as an officer in the US Army (active duty & reserves) with assignments as a Company Commander, Battalion and Brigade Executive Officer and Army-Level Senior Staff Officer. Kevin qualified as a Paratrooper and Pathfinder and graduated from the Command and General Staff College prior to retiring in 2006 as a Lieutenant Colonel.

Since joining the non-profit sector in 1992 Kevin has served as a Director of Development, Executive Director, Vice-President and now serves as the System Executive Director at Valley Health System located in Winchester, VA. During his 25 year fundraising career, he has raised over $48.5MM for community hospitals and schools.

Kevin and his wife Lisa, an adjunct professor at Shenandoah University, moved to the Shenandoah Valley in 2002 and have lived in Stephens City since 2005.

Kevin's awards & recognitions include:

- Recognition as a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE)
- 2009 Sandra Neff Fundraiser of the Year Award Winner
- Paul Harris Fellow with Rotary International
- VMI Alumni Association Cadet Recruiter of the Year
- Awarded the Meritorious Service Medal and the Army Commendation Medal for military service

Kevin and Lisa are celebrating their 26th year of marriage and their daughter Emma is attending CNU as a freshmen. Their son William attends school at Admiral Byrd Middle School.